SAMARITAN'S FEET INTERNATIONAL NAMES NEW DIRECTOR OF LATIN AMERICA

September 22, 2022 (Charlotte, NC) – Samaritan's Feet International is pleased to announce Daniel Domínguez as the new Director of Latin America for Samaritan's Feet. In this role, Domínguez will oversee initiatives and development in Argentina, Peru, and Brazil. Domínguez previously served as the Director of Samaritan's Feet Argentina.

"It has been a dream in recent years to be able to bring Samaritan's Feet to Latin American countries. The time has now come. It is a privilege to serve in this way," said Domínguez, Director of Latin America, Samaritan's Feet International.

In 2012, Manny Ohonme, Co-Founder and CEO of Samaritan's Feet International, arrived in Argentina to meet with potential partners. At that moment, Domínguez knew that he was going to serve with Samaritan's Feet. In 2015, Samaritan's Feet Argentina officially launched at the Honorable Congress of the Argentine Nation, when Domínguez began serving as the Director.

Domínguez is an optician, specializing in children and athletes. He is also a basketball coach and is passionate about sports marketing and eSports. For over 20 years, he served with Argentine Christian Athletes, which he directed in the 1990s. Domínguez is married to Marisa, with two daughters and two grandchildren. He enjoys being with friends, traveling with family, and sports.

About Samaritan's Feet

Samaritan's Feet is a 501(c)(3) humanitarian aid organization that serves and inspires hope in those in need by providing a new pair of shoes. There are an estimated 2.2 billion people worldwide living in poverty and more than 1.5 billion who suffer from foot borne diseases. The vision of Samaritan's Feet is a world with zero shoeless children. Since its founding by Manny and Tracie Ohonme in 2003, Samaritan's Feet and its partners have served over 9 million individuals in 109 nations and more than 530 U.S. cities.
